The Program Folio is published bi-weekly by KPFA as a service to those listeners who support KPFA's free and unique programming by voluntary subscriptions. The basic annual subscription is $15.00. Contributions are tax-deductible. Subscriptions are transferable to KPFA and WBAI.

KPFA is a non-commercial station owned by Pacifica, a non-profit educational foundation. Other Pacifica stations are KPFA in Northern California and WBAI in New York City.

KPFA transmits from Mt. Wilson with 110,000 watts, e.r.p. Normal broadcast hours are 7:00 a.m. to 12:00 midnight weekdays, and 8:00 a.m. to 12:00 midnight weekends. Dates after listings refer to past or future duplicate broadcasts. Numbers in parentheses following concerts refer to playing time in minutes.

Robert Adler is Manager and Program Director.

In Search of Nightsounds

When former News Director John Ohliger came South from KPFA, he brought with him the desire to continue his creation (with John Leonard), Nightsounds. KPFA had discontinued the series, but some 75 hours of tape still existed. These John entrusted to staff announcer Norman Belkin. After beginning to trim the tapes down to hour-long programs, Norman found much dated and local material, and so began inserting material he himself had collected. The more he edited, the more the program changed; from a 150-minute catch-as-catch-can effort, to a more unified 75-minute entity, usually centering on a single theme. Recently, Chris Alexander began producing Inside at WBAI. Much of his material is now incorporated, along with original skits, music and comedy records, ancient 78's from Norman's closet, and contributions from Nightsounds fans.

Since many listeners lamented the late hour (Saturdays at 11:00 p.m.) of the original broadcasts, Nightsounds is now being rebroadcast every Monday morning at 7:00. Nightsounds is not for everybody!

News About the News

Pacifica News asked listeners to comment on the appropriate hour it should be broadcast. Response indicated that its former time of 6:15 p.m. would be more suitable for more listeners. However, many people did opt for a late evening time. So, in order to satisfy all listeners, the Pacifica News will now be broadcast at 6:15, with a rebroadcast at 10:45 p.m. weeknights.

To make this change possible, Programs For Young People will now be heard from 5:00 until 6:00 p.m.

Curtain at Eight

We have received a number of requests for more drama on KPFA. Of course, we do schedule at least one or two plays during each Folio, but our limited "prime time" must be kept flexible, thus barring any regular evening time in addition to that already used. As an experiment, until the end of the year, we will present one full-length play in place of the 8:00 a.m. concert each Saturday. We would appreciate your reaction. The plays to be heard are: Ibsen's Lady From The Sea, Beckett's Endgame, James' Daisy Miller, Chekhov's The Sea Gull, Mandel's Dance To No Music, Wilde's Salome, and Eliot's Murder In The Cathedral.

A Further Note About Krishnamurti

In the last Folio, we discussed the series of lectures by J. Krishnamurti, titled Self-Knowledge. We have received word from Krishnamurti Writings, Inc., that the transcripts of these lectures are no longer available. We would also like to note that the lectures are now being rebroadcast on Fridays at 3:00 p.m. The original broadcast time of Sundays at 12 noon remains the same except Sunday, November 22, when the broadcast will be at 12:30.

Our Cover is by Judy Kory.
